APPENDIX

Workplace pensions administration services

A. Nature of services

- A.1 You have instructed us to provide you with payroll services and associated workplace pension administration. Any advice or assistance we provide to you on pension scheme selection will be provided to you in your capacity as an employer rather than to you personally as an individual and, as such, will not constitute regulated investment business advice.
- A.2 We are only able to assist you with providing an auto-enrolment service in relation to individuals handled by us in our capacity as your payroll agent. Your auto-enrolment obligations to workers who are engaged to provide services to you in a personal capacity are outside the scope of this agreement.

B. Initial set-up for workplace pension arrangements and payrolling of employer-provided benefits-in-kind

- B.1 Workplace pensions: This services schedule assumes that you do not already have a staff workplace pension scheme and that you are using contractual enrolment for your staff.

C. Staging date

- C.1 You agree to advise us in writing of your staging date for auto-enrolment within one month of us entering into this schedule of services or 12 months before your staging date if that is later. If you are unable to do so we will assist you in determining your 'staging date' for auto-enrolment, based on the information you provide to us.
- C.2 If you are considering bringing forward your staging date, you will inform us of your intention in advance so that we can discuss with you any implications for the services that we provide to you and agree how any proposed change in your staging date can be accommodated.

D. Preliminary assessment of staff

- D.1 You agree to carry out a preliminary assessment of your employees to determine what duties you will have in relation to each of your employees and to help you plan how to comply with your duties; and to inform us of the results of this assessment nine months before your staging date, or within one month of us entering into this schedule of services if that is later.

Alternatively we will carry out a preliminary assessment of your employees (meaning the individuals for whom we operate payroll under this agreement) to determine what duties you will have, and to help you plan how to comply with your duties, which will be carried out 4 months before your staging date, or within one month of us entering into this schedule of services if that is later. We will categorise your employees as entitled workers, non-eligible jobholders or eligible jobholders. Our assessment will be based on the information we hold as your payroll agent plus any additional information provided by you including whether any employees carry out some of their duties outside the UK. You will review our assessment of your employees and accept responsibility for the completeness and accuracy of the assessment. If the preliminary assessment of your staff indicates that you will have no employees to auto-enrol on your staging date, the assessment will be repeated three and one month(s) before your staging date and we will discuss with you the need for any pension scheme set-up in case the position changes.

E. Exemption from auto-enrolment

E.1 You are responsible for determining whether you are exempt from employer auto-enrolment duties and, if necessary, for registering as exempt with the Pensions Regulator (TPR). You agree that you will also be responsible for informing TPR of your change of status.

Alternatively, we can assist you in determining whether you are exempt from employer auto-enrolment duties and, if necessary, we will register you as exempt with TPR if provide us with your 10-digit letter code from correspondence you receive from TPR. You agree that, if your circumstances change so that automatic enrolment duties apply to you (for example, if you take on a member of staff other than a director) you will inform us as your payroll agent as soon as is practicable and at least before the beginning of the first payroll period in which they will be paid so that we can agree with you what auto-enrolment services you would like us to perform, and we can also inform TPR of your change of status.
